

BRONX MAN IS DYING, SHOT THROUGH LUNG IN GANG FIGHT AT SALOON

Alleged Assailant Held Without Bail; Victim Refuses to Identify Him.

Frederick Lastvogel, twenty-nine, of No. 81 East One Hundred and Sixty-sixth street, the Bronx, is dying, with a bullet through his right lung, in St. John's Hospital, Long Island City, as the result of a gang fight in Martin's saloon, No. 68 Jackson avenue, Long Island City, early today. Stephen Curran, twenty-four, of No. 74 Manhattan avenue, Greenpoint, charged with having shot the fatal shot, was held today by Magistrate Conway in the Long Island City Police Court, without bail.

Policeman Scott of the Fourth street police station about 1 o'clock this morning heard shots in the saloon and ran for the place. He met a crowd coming out of the saloon and was told to go into the hallway. There Eastvogel stood against him, with Curran behind him. The policeman grabbed Curran, who put up a struggle. Two men rushed to Curran's assistance and attempted to wrest him from the policeman's grasp. One of them took something from the policeman's pocket.

Policemen Harrod and Combs arrived at this juncture and cleared the hallway. An automobile, standing outside the saloon, was pressed into service and the wounded man taken to St. John's Hospital, where it was found that he had been shot in the back, near the right side, the bullet penetrating the right lung. Curran was locked up in the Fourth street police station. Later he was taken before Lastvogel, who refused to identify him.

51,632 WOMEN TO MARCH IN LABOR PARADE HERE

Committee Chosen to Plan for Big Procession Next Monday—White Uniform Selected.

The Woman's Trade Union League last evening elected its committee for the Labor Day parade. There was great enthusiasm at the headquarters at No. 45 East Twenty-second street. Many girls and women enrolled. Each member is to wear a white skirt with shirt waist to match.

"There are 51,632 women in New York who are going to march in that parade next Monday," said Miss Alice S. Bean. "And the fact that they are organized speaks well for the solidarity with which the workingwomen in New York have come to stand together. Organization has given them the courage to fight for their rights, as we have seen in the last year. Next Labor Day's spectacle will be all the more complete for the large contingent of workingwomen who will take part."

On the committee are: Mollie Scheps, Chairman; Margaret Hinchey, laundry workers; Rose Blank, waist workers; Mrs. Hanford Meyers, stenographers; Miss Bertha Levy, white goods workers. Others will be Misses Florence Zucker- man and Mamie Corcoran for book- binders. Miss Rose Schneidermann is Vice-President of the league.

Edith—That's nice. What game is he going to teach you?
Ethel—He proposes solitaire.

CONSTANT ITCHING AND BURNING

Arms and Body Broke Out with Red
Spots. Itched Very Much. Could Not Sleep Nights. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured.

18 Oliver St., Newburgh, L. I., N. Y.—
"About four months ago my arms and body began to break out with red spots which used to itch me very much. Every time I would scratch them they would itch more. I could not sleep nights because of the constant itching and burning. The spots would start like a rash, very red, and would look so much that I would scratch until I was all sore. Sometimes my clothing would make it burn so much that I would not know what to do.
"I tried my amount of soap and ointments which never did me any good. One day I saw the advertisement for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, so I sent for them and used them and found them very good. Then I bought some Cuticura Soap and Ointment and used them every night and morning for six weeks and found that I was entirely cured." (Signed) William Delaney, Apr. 25, 1913.
When you buy a fine toilet soap think of the advantage Cuticura Soap possesses over the most expensive toilet soap ever made. In addition to being absolutely pure and refreshingly fragrant, it is delicately yet effectively medicinal, giving you two soaps in one, a toilet and a skin soap in one. Cuticura Soap (25c) and Cuticura Ointment (50c) are sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 25-c. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."
"I'm a man who shaves and shampoos with Cuticura Soap and I'll be best for skin and scalp."
